Prose of Pie has been the Hudson Valley's most popular monthly storytelling series for over 4 years. In February, we're bringing you a brand new collaboration with the Hudson Valley Center for Contemporary art. We'll be filling their beautiful exhibition space with true human tales on the evening's theme: Slow Simmer. Soak in the stories surrounded by the best contemporary art on view in the Hudson Valley.

ABOUT THE THEME: Sometimes passion takes time. Remember how long it took you to get up the nerve to approach that crush! What was it that led you to fall in love with an artist, or make art your life's pursuit? How long did it take to master your field of expertise, or maybe you still 'fake it til you make it'? Did you find a hobby that makes the rest of life bearable? An enduring commitment to making the world a better place or was it an infatuation long past? It takes time to fall hard - for a partner, for your calling, for a pastime. We want to hear about the long slow road you followed on the way to your passion.

ABOUT THE SHOW: Join us to listen to storytellers and humor writers from around the region tell true personal tales on the monthly theme in a Moth-inspired format.

PLUS a pie bake-off: To start the evening, you'll indulge in a sampling of pies made by local "pie-trepreneurs" and vote for your favorite between stories. You'll please your belly and warm your soul.

Entry fee includes pie tasting, beverages, and great entertainment! We sell out many months, so be sure to buy your tickets early!

HAVE A PIE FOR THE BAKE-OFF?

Admission is free if you bring a pie for the bake-off BUT YOU MUST NOTIFY US at least two days before to receive your free ticket. And if your pie gets the most votes, you win the prize and proudly bear the title of this month's PieMaster!
